

Agribusiness

Ukraine is a unique European country for agribusiness. Enormous land potential, natural conditions, soil characteristics, and established agricultural traditions make Ukraine extremely attractive in terms of investment in agricultural production.

DLF lawyers have the huge practical experience and professional knowledge to provide effective and comprehensive assistance in creating and running agribusiness in Ukraine. We understand the needs of our clients in the context of their business activities, we know agribusiness from the inside and offer only effective solutions.

DLF attorneys-at-law helps to proactively use the opportunities provided by the Ukrainian legislation and to take into account regional risks in each individual case.

Within its agribusiness practice, DLF attorneys-at-law provides the following services:

- support of creation, purchase, and sale of agribusiness in Ukraine;
- corporate structuring of agribusiness in Ukraine;
- conducting Legal Due Diligence of agricultural assets;
- advising on external fundraising, qualified support in other fundraising sources;
- support and advocacy in relations with banking institutions;
- legal support of agricultural companies' operational activities;
- consulting on land bank management;
- advising on taxation of agricultural companies;
- development of standard documents (agreements, policies, instructions, orders) and standard legal procedures for agricultural companies;
- judicial defense of the agricultural companies' and farmers' interests.