

Ukrainian agribusiness: turning challenges into opportunities

This brochure analyses Ukrainian agriculture through the lens of opportunities available for foreign investors despite and often as a result of Russia's aggression. It focuses on the most promising areas and current risks, as well as the tools to mitigate such risks. The brochure is authored by Iurii Dynys.