

Public procurement for foreign companies in Ukraine

This publication provides insights for foreign companies into Ukraine's public procurement process, focusing on opportunities in key sectors such as energy, defence, and construction. It offers practical advice on navigating tender platforms, meeting legal requirements, appealing against unjustified rejections, as well as answers to the most common questions.

The publication was authored by Yaroslav Anikieiev and Iurii Dynys.