

Immigration to Ukraine

Introduction

1. Immigration permit

2. Temporary residence permit in Ukraine

3. Permanent residence permit in Ukraine

The fundamental principle of Ukrainian migration law is the freedom of movement of individuals and citizens, which is also their subjective right. According to Article 33 of the Constitution of Ukraine, everyone who is legally present in Ukraine is guaranteed freedom of movement, free choice of residence, and the right to freely leave Ukraine, except for restrictions established by law.

Under Ukrainian law, foreign citizens may immigrate to Ukraine for permanent residence, come to Ukraine for employment, study, family reunification, etc. in accordance with the established procedure.

There are 3 separate procedures to highlight here:

obtaining an immigration permit;

obtaining a temporary residence permit in Ukraine;

obtaining a permanent residence permit in Ukraine.

1. Immigration permit

An immigration permit can be obtained either directly in Ukraine or outside Ukraine at a Ukrainian consulate in the foreign citizen's country of residence. However, a permanent residence permit can only be obtained in Ukraine at a territorial division of the State Migration Service of Ukraine (SMS) at the location of future registration of the foreigner's residence.

Permits for immigration to Ukraine are granted to certain categories of immigrants.

The first group is persons under the immigration quota established by the government of Ukraine, which includes:

- scientists and cultural figures whose immigration serves the interests of Ukraine – this can be confirmed by a request from the Ministry of Culture and Science to support the migrant's application based on their significant achievements in culture or science;
- highly qualified professionals and workers who are in high demand in the Ukrainian economy – usually evidenced by a diploma confirming the required qualification as a professional or worker, the availability of whom is limited in Ukraine, and whose necessity is confirmed by relevant information from the Ministry of Social Policy and Labour;
- foreigners who have made a foreign investment in the Ukrainian economy in foreign convertible currency in the amount of at least 100 thousand US dollars – in the form of shares, securities, etc. confirming the person's investment in the Ukrainian economy;
- foreigners who are full siblings, grandparents, or grandchildren of Ukrainian citizens;
- foreigners who previously held Ukrainian citizenship – usually confirmed by a certificate from the Migration Service that the person had Ukrainian citizenship;
- parents, spouses and minor children of immigrants – copies of birth or marriage certificates must be provided;
- foreigners who have continuously resided in Ukraine for 3 years from the date of establishing their status as victims of human trafficking;
- foreigners who have served in the Armed Forces of Ukraine, the State Special Transport Service, or the National Guard of Ukraine for 3 or more years;
- foreigners who have served in the Armed Forces of Ukraine, the State Special Transport Service or the National Guard of Ukraine (regardless of the length of military service) and have been recognised by military medical commissions as unfit for military service due to their state of health as a result of illness, injuries (traumas, traumatic brain injuries, mutilations) sustained while performing military service duties;
- foreigners who have arrived in Ukraine for employment or to enter into a gig contract, to work in branches and representative offices of legal entities, for the purpose of family reunification, provided that they have resided continuously in Ukraine based on a temporary residence permit for the past 5 years.

The second group includes persons eligible for immigration outside the immigration quota:

- a spouse of a Ukrainian citizen with whom they have been married for more than 2 years, children and parents of Ukrainian citizens;
- a spouse of a deceased citizen of Ukraine who served in the Armed Forces of Ukraine, other military entities established in accordance with the laws of Ukraine, the Security Service of Ukraine, the State Service for Special Communications and Information Protection of Ukraine, the National Guard of Ukraine, the State Border Service of Ukraine, the State Security Service of Ukraine, the State Special Transport Service, special-purpose law enforcement agencies or intelligence agencies of Ukraine (regardless of the duration of marriage valid at the time of death), in the case of an application for immigration permission during the period of martial law and within 6 months from the

- date of its termination or cancellation;
- foreigners who are guardians or caretakers of Ukrainian citizens, or who are under the guardianship or care of Ukrainian citizens;
- foreigners who are entitled to acquire Ukrainian citizenship by territorial origin;
- foreigners whose immigration serves the national interest of Ukraine;
- Ukrainians living abroad, spouses of Ukrainians living abroad, and their children in the case of joint entry and stay in Ukraine;
- stateless persons who have lived in Ukraine based on a temporary residence permit for 2 years from the date of their recognition as stateless persons.

If the above grounds for immigration to Ukraine are present, a foreign citizen must submit:

- an application for an immigration permit;
- 3 photographs (3.5 cm x 4.5 cm);
- the original and a copy of a document confirming their identity (international passport);
- a translation into Ukrainian of the personal data page of their passport;
- a document confirming their place of residence in Ukraine and abroad;
- information about their family composition (marriage certificate and children's birth certificates);
- information confirming that the applicant does not suffer from chronic alcoholism, drug addiction, or any chronic diseases, the list of which is established by the Ministry of Health of Ukraine;
- a certificate issued by the competent authority of the country of previous residence or its diplomatic mission or consular office in Ukraine confirming that the person has no criminal record;
- a receipt for payment of the state duty or consular fee.

All documents issued by foreign state authorities must be translated into Ukrainian and legalised (apostilled).

The processing time for an application for an immigration permit is 6 months if the documents are submitted directly in Ukraine, and 1 year if submitted abroad.
