

Corruption risks significantly lowered

This article in German provides an overview of the key legislative amendments in the privatization of state-owned and municipal enterprises in Ukraine and gives a brief analysis of a number of positive effects of the new law, including the international consultants involvement in the privatization process. The author of the article is Maria Lototska.