

DLF partner to present at an event for German Industry 4.0. companies

On June 14-18, the virtual business trip to Ukraine for German companies in the field of innovative technologies (Industry 4.0) will take place. The event is organised by DREBERIS (Dresden International Strategy Consultants), a German consulting organization, with the support of Federal Ministry for Economic Affairs and Energy of Germany (BMWi).

The key aim of the event is to establish business connections with Ukrainian companies, organisations and state institutions in the industry. The agenda includes a variety of presentations, as well as different formats of direct B2B communication.

Among others, DLF partner, Igor Dykunsyy, LL.M. will be presenting at the event and will speak on the legal aspects of entering the Ukrainian market. He will also tell the participants about the major investment opportunities in Ukraine and provide examples of successful implementation of investment projects.

Other participants include: Sara Galander, head of the BMWi Division for Eastern Europe (excl. the EU), Southern Caucasus and Central Asia; Alexander Markus, chairman of AHK (German-Ukrainian Chamber of Commerce); Fabian Nemitz, an expert on the Ukrainian economy at GTAI (German Trade & Invest), Volodymyr Panchenko, director of the Analytical Center of the Federation of Employers of Ukraine; Alexandre Yurchak, director of Association of Industrial Automation of Ukraine; Benjamin Klinger (German Association for International Cooperation (GIZ)), as well as representatives of Ukrainian and German enterprises, Ukrainian state authorities, the Embassy of Germany in Ukraine, etc. For the full list of speakers, check the event agenda below.

The first two days (June 14-15), will be devoted to the general economic situation in Ukraine, the country's investment potential, practical experience of German companies working in Ukraine, interaction with Ukrainian counterparties, the current state of events in the construction industry, and projects being implemented in Ukraine. In the following three days (June 16-18), various networking events and B2B meetings between German and Ukrainian companies will be held.

At the end of each session, the participants will be able to ask questions or express their opinions.

The online event starts on 14 June 2021 at 10:00 am Kyiv time (9:00 am Berlin time).

Working languages: German, English (depending on the panel discussion).
